

The Sanctuary of Reiki Retreat with

Grand Master, Phyllis Lei Furumoto

May 11th to 13th 2012, Croydon Hall near Minehead, Somerset UK

Sanctuary: a place of refuge and protection. The practice of Reiki leads us to discover this place. It exists along side the deep feeling of “home” that comes with the initiations. We enter this inner space with the sense of being comforted. When experienced in a group of Reiki students, this feeling of sanctuary becomes substantial, unforgettable, ever present. This is an invitation to step into sanctuary with others, increasing the capacity to hold humanity with compassion. To suit this focus, we have booked Croydon Hall, a beautiful retreat centre situated in the Somerset countryside.
